VOCA Assistance Grant Administration: Understanding a SAA’s Role from Implementation to Long-Term Strategic Planning

Kathy Buckley
Director, Office of Victim Services
Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency
“WE ALWAYS OVERESTIMATE THE CHANGE THAT WILL OCCUR IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS AND UNDERESTIMATE THE CHANGE THAT WILL OCCUR IN THE NEXT TEN. DON’T LET YOURSELF BE LULLED INTO INACTION.”

Bill Gates
In Pennsylvania...

- Increased the full-time equivalent (FTEs) from 309 to 1335 over a 4-year span (332%) increase

- Experienced a 43% increase in grantees

How do you prepare for these increases?
Prioritizing the priorities

• Spend the state’s federal VOCA dollars?

• Develop a risk assessment to guide monitoring?

• Streamline data collection and reporting?

• Conduct a needs assessment?

• The need to hire staff?

• Identify gaps in service delivery?

• Develop and implement Program standards

• Training for victim advocates?
Prioritizing priorities

- It doesn’t matter where you are coming from. All that really matters is where you are going.

- What is the impact you want to have?

- Remain “future oriented”.

Strategy is the Gatekeeper

This project is important to me!

This project is important to me!

My project is important to me!

This project is strategic to me!

THIS project is Strategic!
Don’t Major in Minors

• When determining your priorities, don’t give in to the temptation to address the small and easy things first.
  • As Goethe said, “The things that matter most must never be at the mercy of the things that matter least.”

• We tend to follow the Law of Least Resistance.

• Sometimes we tend to develop 20 initiatives that all are to be completed in the next 3 months.
Where to start?

Who’s doing what?

How much time will it take?

What do I first?

Constantly Review and Evolve

• Most recent strategic plan in 2018 revised the Victim Service Advisory Committee’s Mission Statement:
  • To promote a standard of excellence in crime victim services

• Vision Statement:
  • Survivor-focused services are available and accessible for all crime victims and communities
Part of your strategy development is your core purpose, the underlying “why” you exist.

“to collaboratively assess needs, maximize state and federal resources, support intervention and prevention activities, and improve quality services for domestic violence and sexual assault victims while positively influencing family violence policies and practices.”

Questions:

- Does this Mission Statement reflect who you are?
- What aspects of the mission statement do you like?
- What needs added? Removed/modified?
Examples of Mission Statements

• International Red Cross: To provide relief to victims of disaster and help people prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies.

• Starbucks: To inspire and nurture the human spirit — one person, one cup and one neighborhood at a time.

• Google: To organize the world’s information and make it universally accessible and useful.

• Walmart: We save people money so they can live better.
Vision Statement

• Reflects the specific mountain you are currently trying to climb – the “where.”
• Provides a clear mental picture of what your organization will look like in 5 to 10 years from now.
• Often referred to as Big, Hairy, Audacious Goals or BHAGs.
  • We will put a man on the moon before the end of the decade and bring him back. (JFK)
  • A computer on every desk and in every home using great software as an empowering tool. (Microsoft)
Examples of Vision Statements

- Heinz: To be the world’s premier food company, offering nutritious, superior tasting foods to people everywhere.
- Susan G. Komen for the Cure: A world without breast cancer.
- Mattel: To be the premier Toy Brand—today and tomorrow.
- McDonald’s: To be the world’s best quick service restaurant experience. Being the best means providing outstanding quality, service, cleanliness, and value, so that we make every customer in every restaurant smile.
- Amazon: Our vision is to be earth’s most customer centric company; to build a place where people can come to find and discover anything they might want to buy online.
- South Carolina PAR: Creating a South Carolina where sexual violence is not tolerated
- Georgia Criminal Justice Coordinating Council: All crime victims in Georgia have equitable access to the high quality services and support needed to transition from victim to survivor.
You’re not done, but...

- But you can breathe
- Jump for joy
- Feel accomplished...because...

Ultimately you are enhancing services to victims of crime
