FY 2021 VOCA Victim Assistance Data Analysis Report 2

VOCA Victim Assistance Subgrantee Organizations

All VOCA VA subgrantee organization types—nonprofits, governments, federally recognized Tribal government, agencies, and organizations, and campus organizations—are prompted to identify a designation that best describes their agency, organization, or government. Some examples of these designations include prosecutor's offices, juvenile justice centers, domestic violence organizations, and sexual assault coalitions. Nonprofit organizations were the most common type of VOCA VA subgrantee organization in FY 2021, followed by government agencies (Figure 2).

OFFICE FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME FELLOWSHIP PERFORMANCE MEASURES

The following pages contain the performance measures and instructions for the Office for Victims of Crime's (OVC's) fellowship grant programs.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

OVC works to enhance the Nation's capacity to assist crime victims and to provide leadership in changing attitudes, policies, and practices in ways that will promote justice and healing for all victims.

In this capacity, OVC strives to uphold the intent of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act to ensure that all trafficking victims—regardless of immigration status, gender, or form of trafficking—receive support to access the services they need. OVC grant funding supports efforts to develop, expand, and strengthen programs for victims of human trafficking.

Structure of the Questionnaire

This questionnaire is divided into three topic areas. All human trafficking TTA providers must provide a response for each question in the assigned topic areas. The performance measures in this document

Why Should State Administering Agencies Submit a Comprehensive Annual Report?

Focusing on submitting a comprehensive annual report, that is being developed all year long, can help SAAs and OVC:

- Showcase the breadth of work conducted with OVC grant funds
- Better manage subawards and report accurately to decision-makers
- Monitor grant activity, goals, and deliverables closely
- Oversee the use of federal funds in real time
- Assess outputs and outcomes throughout the fiscal year
- Inform OVC of the needs of the field
